Dublin Caſtle, January 20.

THE Houſes of Lords and Commons having reſolved upon humble Addreſſes to His Majeſty, the ſame, together with Addreſſes from both Houſes to the Lord Lieutenant, were this Day preſented to his Grace, and, with his Grace's Anſwers, are as follow:

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament aſſembled, do moſt humbly beg Leave to declare our warmeſt and unfeigned Attachment to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, Family, and Government, and to congratulate your Majeſty on your happy Eſcape from the late deſperate and horrid Attempt upon your Sacred Life, the invaluable Importance of which is felt by us, if poſſible, with a ſtill deeper Impreſſion than ever, expreſſing at the ſame Time our Gratitude to Divine Providence, which averted the Stroke, and preſerved a Life ſo dear to your faithful People.

We entreat your Majeſty to accept our Thanks for continuing amongſt us our preſent Chief Governor, whoſe eminent and amiable Qualities have acquired the Eſteem and Confidence of this Nation.

We beg Leave to declare our extreme Concern, that the Commotions which have diſturbed ſome Parts of this Kingdom, have not yet ſubſided; and that when we conſider them as violent Combinations againſt the Laws and Conſtitution of our Country, and the Rights of our Fellow Subjects, we cannot be blind to their fatal Tendency and Effects as to the Safety and Proſperity of every Individual, and their deſtructive Conſequences to Induſtry and true Liberty; and that when we behold this Spirit of Outrage more particularly directed againſt the Eſtabliſhed Church and her Miniſters, we cannot but be anxious for the Protection of the Proteſtant Religion, the true and ſteady Foundation of a Proteſtant Government.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that you may rely upon it, that with a zealous Attachment to the Religious and Civil Conſtitutions of our Country, and their inſeparable Intereſts, we will be ready, with the utmoſt Alacrity, to afford whatever Aſſiſtance may be neceſſary for the effectual Vindication and Execution of the Laws for the Protection of Society, and of the Conſtitution in general, and eſpecially and particularly for the Support and Maintenance of the Eſtabliſhed Church, and the reſpectable Situation of it's Miniſters.

We eſteem the Increaſe of Shipping and Navigation as an Object of peculiar Concern to the Commerce of theſe Kingdoms, and that we will not omit to take ſuch Meaſures as may beſt tend to promote a Matter of ſuch National Importance.

We acknowledge your Majeſty's Goodneſs in communicating to us the Concluſion of a Treaty of Navigation and Commerce with the Moſt Chriſtian King, and declare that, having ſo often experienced your Majeſty's great Regard to the Intereſts and Welfare of this Kingdom, we doubt not of their having been attended to on this Occaſion; and that, in this Confidence, your Majeſty will find us cordially diſpoſed to afford it our beſt Conſideration, and to give it full Effect by proper and adequate Laws. And we truſt that when Quiet ſhall be reſtored, this Nation will reap the Advantages which that Treaty offers to her Induſtry and Emulation.

We ſhall continue to encourage our Trade and Manufactures, and eſpecially the Linen Manufacture; and we will not abate our anxious Care for the Proteſtant Charter Schools, and other charitable Inſtitutions; and particularly we ſhall moſt freely give our Aſſiſtance to a liberal and moſt extenſive Plan for the general Improvement of Education as ſoon as it can be brought to ſome Maturity.

And we ſupplicate the Almighty Power to extend to your Majeſty a Life replete with every Bleſſing; and that your Majeſty may long enjoy the Happineſs of beholding the National Proſperity flouriſh under your Gracious Auſpices, and of receiving the lively Expreſſions of Affection and Gratitude from the Hearts of your loyal and faithful Subjects.

Wm. Watts Gayer,
Edw. Gayer, } Cler. Parliament.

His Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer.

I Will forthwith tranſmit this dutiful and loyal Addreſs, to be laid before His Majeſty.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Knights, Citizens, and Burgeſſes, in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland, in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to approach your Throne, not only with the conſtant Declarations of our Attachment to your Royal Perſon, Family, and Government, but with the moſt ardent and ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Deliverance from the deſperate Effort of a frantic Aſſaſſin.

We ſhould be dead to every Sentiment of Loyalty and Gratitude, if we could repreſs our Solicitude for the Life of a Sovereign, whoſe Reign has been endeared to us by His diſtinguiſhed Attention to His Subjects of this Kingdom.

We are affected with the utmoſt Concern and Indignation at thoſe alarming and violent Outrages, which have ſo long diſgraced a Part of this Kingdom, and which we have in vain hoped would have been extinguiſhed by the vigorous yet temperate Exertions of your Majeſty's Government; Convinced, as the the ſame Time, that no Kingdom can riſe to Proſperity but through the Eſtabliſhment of internal Peace, we are determined to check the Progreſs of Diſorder by every Means in our Power. No Effort of Combination or Force ſhall divert our decided Reſolution to ſecure the Rights of all our Fellow Subjects, and effectually to maintain the Civil and Religious Conſtitutions of the State. The Support of the Eſtabliſhed Church, and of the reſpectable Situation of it's Miniſters, is an Object of the moſt eſſential Importance, and inſeparably connected with the Security of all our deareſt Intereſts: We can never, therefore, be wanting either in Attention or Zeal to defend them, by inveſting your Majeſty's Government with every requiſite and adequate Authority, relying upon the Prudence and Humanity of a Chief Governor, whoſe amiable and ſteady Virtues have entirely engaged our Attachment and Confidence.

We ſhall chearfully make the neceſſary Proviſions for the Exigencies of the State, and the honorable Support of your Majeſty's Government.

We ſhall loſe no Time in inveſtigating thoſe Advantages which may be derived from our enacting of Laws for the further Increaſe of Shipping and Navigation.

We humbly offer our Acknowledgments to your Majeſty for your gracious Communication of the Treaty of Navigation and Commerce, which your Majeſty has concluded with the Moſt Chriſtian King: We have no Doubt of the Attention, which has been ſhewn therein, to our particular Situation and Intereſts; and we muſt be naturally anxious to adopt any Meaſure which, by engaging the Nation in new Objects of Emulation and Induſtry, promiſes thereby to open another Source of Wealth and Proſperity.

We ſhall not neglect a judicious Encouragement of our Linen and other Manufactures. The Proteſtant Charter Schools and other public Inſtitutions for charitable Purpoſes will command our Attention, and we ſhall not fail in applying ourſelves to the important Object of a general Improvement of Education.

Encouraged in our Endeavours for the Public Good by your Majeſty's auſpicious Recommendation and Patronage, we ſhall omit no Exertion in furthering the great Purpoſes for which we are aſſembled, and conſulting the Glory of your Majeſty's Reign by ſecuring the Peace of your Kingdom and exalting it's Proſperity.

Ed. Cooke, Cler. Parl. Dom. Com.

His Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer.

I will immediately tranſmit this dutiful and loyal Addreſs to be laid before His Majeſty.

To His Grace Charles Duke of Rutland, Lord Lieutenant General, and General Governor of Ireland,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Grace,

WE, His Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to return your Grace our ſincere Thanks for your Speech from the Throne, and to expreſs our Gratitude to His Majeſty for continuing to us a Chief Governor, whoſe Spirit, directed by the Laws, and whoſe Juſtice, tempered with Humanity, render him peculiarly, under the preſent Circumſtances, the Object of our warmeſt Attachment and Confidence.

We have ſeen with Indignation the violent and iniquitous Proceedings of a deluded Multitude, who in ſome Parts of the Kingdom have invaded the Property of the Subject and inſulted the Authority of the Laws. Our Zeal for Religious and Civil Liberty will neceſſarily direct our Attention to ſuppreſs, by vigorous and deciſive Councils, that Spirit of Outrage and Diſobedience, which ſtrikes at the Foundation of all Property and perſonal Security, and threatens alike the Conſtitution of our Church and State. Your Grace's earneſt Endeavours to reſtore and maintain the Publick Tranquility deſerve our warmeſt Thanks, and your Grace may depend upon our ready Concurrence in every Meaſure which may be requiſite effectually to vindicate the Laws and protect Society.

We ſhall immediately take into Conſideration what Meaſures may be proper to confirm to this Country the Advantages to be derived from a further Increaſe of Shipping and Navigation. We are confident that His Majeſty's gracious Regard to the Intereſts and Welfare of this Kingdom will appear manifeſted in the Treaty concluded by His Majeſty with the Moſt Chriſtian King; and we ſhall apply ourſelves to prepare ſuch Laws as may be neceſſary to give it Effect, truſting that the Advantages it offers will powerfully excite the National Emulation and Induſtry.

The Trade and Manufactures, and eſpecially the Linen Manufacture of this Kingdom, as well as the Proteſtant Charter Schools, and other public Inſtitutions for charitable Purpoſes, ſhall be the Object of our Care, Protection and Encouragement; and we ſhall gladly forward a liberal and extenſive Plan for the Improvement of Education.

The Experience which we have had of your Grace's Government excites our grateful Acknowledgments, and we ſhall endeavour to prove our Senſe of Obligation by ſtudying in all Things the Eaſe and Honor of your Grace's Adminiſtration.

Wm. Watts Gayer, } Cler. Parliament.
Edw. Gayer, }

His Grace's Anſwer.

I Requeſt you to accept my ſincere Thanks for this obliging Addreſs. It ſhall be the conſtant Object of my Ambition to merit a Continuance of your Approbation by ſuppreſſing, as far as the Laws enable me, every Attempt againſt the Peace and Security of Society, and by ſtrenuouſly protecting and preſerving the Conſtitution in Church and State.

To His Grace Charles Duke of Rutland, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland,

The humble Addreſs of the Knights, Citizens, and Burgeſſes, in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Grace,

WE, His Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland, in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave humbly to return your Grace our ſincere Thanks for your Speech from the Throne.

It is with the moſt ſincere Pleaſure we embrace this freſh Opportunity of renewing to your Grace our moſt cordial Aſſurance of Duty and Attention to your Perſon, and of repeating our high Senſe of your Virtues, our warm Approbation of your Grace's Adminiſtration, and the Gratitude we owe to His Majeſty for continuing in the Government of this Kingdom a Nobleman who has rendered himſelf ſo deſervedly beloved by the Nation.

With equal Concern and Indignation we have obſerved the Continuance of thoſe Commotions and Outrages in ſome Parts of the Kingdom, which tend to diſgrace the Character and injure the Credit of the Nation, and are ſo deſtructive of all the Benefits which might riſe from the Bleſſings of internal good Order, and the Spirit of honeſt Induſtry. Your Grace may reſt aſſured of our determined Reſolution to vindicate the Laws from Inſult and Violation, and to inſure an effectual Protection to Society. Our uniform Regard for the Rights of all our Fellow Subjects, and our zealous Attachment to the Religious and Civil Conſtitutions of our Country, convince us of the ſtrong Neceſſity to guard and protect tect their inſeparable Intereſts from every Attack of Combination and Violence, and confirm our inflexible Zeal to ſupport the Eſtabliſhed Church and the reſpectable Situation of it's Miniſters.

Relying upon the Wiſdom and Juſtice of your Grace's Adminiſtration, we ſhall moſt chearfully provide for the Exigencies of the State, and the honorable Support of His Majeſty's Government.

We ſhall proceed without Delay to inveſtigate the Means of further increaſing our Shipping and Navigation, and to frame ſuch Laws as may be productive of that beneficial Effect.

We beg Leave to expreſs our Acknowledgements to your Grace for the Information which, by His Majeſty's Commands, you have ſignified to us of a Treaty of Navigation and Commerce concluded between His Majeſty and the Moſt Chriſtian King. We look, with true Satisfaction, to this as an Opening, by which the Induſtry and Emulation of His Majeſty's Subjects may in this Kingdom be encouraged and promoted.

We ſhall pay every Attention to the due Encouragement of our Linen and other Manufactures, to the Proteſtant Charter Schools, and other public Inſtitutions for charitable Purpoſes. An enlarged and liberal Syſtem for the general Improvement of Education deſerves and will command our earneſt Conſideration and Furtherance.

The Wiſhes expreſſed by your Grace for the Welfare of this Country, ſtrengthened by your longer Reſidence among us, cannot fail to excite in us the warmeſt Senſations of Attachment; and we beg Leave moſt humbly to aſſure your Grace, that a longer Acquaintance with your Grace's Principles and Virtues afford us the beſt founded Expectations, that His Majeſty's earneſt Deſire to promote and ſecure the Happineſs and Proſperity of Ireland can never have a fairer Proſpect of being carried into Effect than under the Auſpices of your Grace's Government.

E. Cooke, Cler. Parl. Dom. Com.

His Grace's Anſwer.

I Return you my cordial Thanks for this Addreſs. My ſincere Regard for the Welfare and Happineſs of Ireland ſhall at all Times continue to be manifeſted by my full Exertion of thoſe Powers with which the Laws inveſt me, for the Suppreſſion of Outrage and Diſorder, the Encouragement of peaceful Induſtry, the Protection of the Eſtabliſhed Church, and the Maintenance of the Conſtitution.

WE, your Majeſty's ever loyal Subjects, the Council and Aſſembly of your Iſland of Nevis, beg Leave to offer unto your Majeſty our ſincereſt Congratulations on your providential Eſcape from the late raſh and extraordinary Attempt on your Majeſty's Life.

Impreſſed with the moſt poignant Concern at ſo alarming an Event, we feel ourſelves prompted to a Profeſſion of the trueſt Affection for your Royal Perſon; an Affection founded on the moſt ſolid Baſis, inſpired and cheriſhed as it has been by a Syſtem of Government, in which your Majeſty has been graciouſly pleaſed to diſplay a moſt mild and equitable Diſcharge of the Royal Prerogatives, and an unvaried Obſervance and Support of the true Principles of the Conſtitution. Theſe, Sire, are Virtues which have caſt a Luſtre on your Crown, and ſecured to you ſo effectually the Veneration and Attachment of all your Subjects, as to have left it to Inſanity alone to conceive the ſmalleſt Violence to your Sacred Perſon.

We ſincere'y pray that your Majeſty may long continue to reign as happy as you are beloved, diſpenſing the Bleſſings of a Conſtitution calculated to inſure Felicity to yourſelf, and real Comfort to a loyal and grateful People.
